Attitude to Risk

(i) Which ONE of the following most accurately describes your investment profile?

- Very Cautious Investor
You are risk averse. Your investment preference is to maintain the security of your capital. You acknowledge that this investment strategy is at the expense of potential capital gain or incremental income.
This category is not 100% capital guaranteed*
- Cautious Investor
You are prepared to accept low levels of risk for the prospect of slightly higher returns.
- Considered Investor
You are looking for a balance of risk and reward. You accept during periods of market risk potential losses may exceed by a multiple the potential income from investments.
- Considered Risk Taker
You are willing to accept higher levels of volatility and fluctuations in the value of your investments for the prospect of higher returns. You accept that volatility in markets may result in loss in excess of the initial investment amount.
- Risk Taker
You are willing to accept high volatility levels and fluctuations in the value of your investments for the prospect of higher returns. You acknowledge that in light of the unpredictable nature of stock markets your investment may carry an increased risk of potential loss in excess of the initial amount invested.

(ii) You find it interesting to explore investment opportunities for your money?

- Strongly Agree Agree Neither Agree nor Disagree Disagree Strongly Disagree

(iii) Six months after making an investment where your capital is at risk, your investment performs poorly in line with weak financial markets. Which option described below, best suggests your possible course of action?

- Sell all the investment and put the proceeds in a deposit account to prevent further loss
 Sell part of the investment, purchasing a less risky investment with the proceeds to reduce further losses
 Monitor the investment ahead of deciding what to do
 Invest more monies to avail of weaker prices expecting recovery
 Make a riskier investment to recover all losses in the expectation of recovery
