Cantor Fitzgerald Absolute Return Fund

(the “Fund”)

SUPPLEMENT TO PROSPECTUS

29 June 2023

This Supplement relates to the Cantor Fitzgerald Absolute Return Fund and forms part of the Prospectus for Cantor Fitzgerald Capital Specialist Investment Funds p.l.c. This Supplement must be read in the context of, and together with, the Prospectus. In particular, investors should read the risk factors set out in the Prospectus.

The Company has been authorised by the Central Bank to market solely to Qualifying Investors. The authorisation of the Company by the Central Bank is not an endorsement or guarantee of the Company by the Central Bank nor is the Central Bank responsible for the contents of this Supplement. The Central Bank shall not be liable by virtue of its authorisation of the Company or by reason of its exercise of the functions conferred on it by legislation in relation to the Company for any default of the Company. In addition, the authorisation of the Company by the Central Bank shall not constitute a warranty by the Central Bank as to creditworthiness or financial standing of the various parties to the Company.

With the exception of investors who qualify as “Knowledgeable Employees” (as defined in the Prospectus), the minimum aggregate subscription amount is €100,000 and an investment in the Fund may only be made by an investor who meets the Qualifying Investor criteria (defined below) and is aware of the risks involved in the proposed investment and of the fact that inherent in such investments is the potential to lose all of the sum invested.

The Company (of which the Fund forms a part) has been authorised as a Qualifying Investor Alternative Investment Fund (“QIAIF”) under the Central Bank’s AIF Rulebook. Accordingly, the Company has been authorised by the Central Bank to market solely to Qualifying Investors. Accordingly, while the Company is authorised by the Central Bank, the Central Bank has not set any limits or other restrictions on the investment objectives, the investment policies or on the degree of leverage which may be employed by the Company nor has the Central Bank reviewed this Supplement. The Company must comply with the aim of spreading investment risk in accordance with section 1386(1)(A) of the Companies Act 2014. Investment in the Company should not constitute the sole or the main investment of an investor’s portfolio. An investment in the Shares has the potential for above average risk and is therefore suitable only for Qualifying Investors who are in a position to take such risk. The risk factors for an investor to consider are set out in the Prospectus and the section below headed “Risk Factors”. The names of any other sub-funds of the Company will be available on request.

Investors should note that since transferable securities may depreciate as well as appreciate in value, no assurance can be given by the Company or the Directors or any of the persons referred to in the Prospectus that the Company will attain its objectives. The price of Shares in the Fund, in addition to the income therefrom, may decrease as well as increase. Accordingly, an investment should only be made where the investor is or would be in a position to sustain any loss of such investment. The difference at any one time between the sale and repurchase price of the Shares in the Fund means that the investment should be regarded as medium to long term.

Prospective investors should be aware that investment in the Fund carries an above-average degree of risk and the price of Shares may go down as well as up. The Fund is only suitable for investment by investors who are aware of and understand the risks involved and are in a position to take such risks.

Shareholders should note that all or part of the management fee and expenses of a Fund may be charged to the capital of a Fund as set out herein Supplement. This may have the effect of lowering the capital value of a Shareholder’s investment. Thus on redemptions of holdings Shareholders may not receive back the full amount invested.

Potential investors should consult, and must rely on, their own professional tax, legal and investment advisers as to matters concerning the Company and their investment in the Company.

The Directors of the Company, whose names appear in the Prospectus, accept responsibility for the information contained in this Supplement. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Directors (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information contained in this Supplement is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

Unless otherwise stated, all capitalised terms shall have the same meaning herein as in the Prospectus.

“Valuation Point”	means 9.00 pm (Dublin time) on each Valuation Date.

The Fund

This Supplement is issued in connection with the offer of the Cantor Fitzgerald Absolute Return Fund. The Directors of the Company may create new classes of Shares in the Fund from time to time, provided that the creation of any such new class of Shares is notified to and cleared in advance by the Central Bank. A separate pool of assets will not be maintained for each class of Shares.

The Base Currency of the Fund is euro.

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to generate long term returns, subject to relevant prudential considerations with regard to the spread of risk and the credit quality of individual investments.

Investment Policy

The Fund may invest in equities, equity related securities, currency exposures, commodity exposures and/or collective investment schemes (including ETFs) with investment policies consistent with the Fund's overall investment strategy. The Fund may gain long/short exposure to any of the foregoing asset classes or indices of the foregoing asset classes, via derivatives (including swaps, contracts for difference, futures, options and forwards). The Fund will invest in both listed and unlisted equities.

The Fund may also maintain a cash balance and invest in money market instruments and other fixed rate securities whether issued by corporate or sovereign entities (including, but not limited to, deposits or treasury bills, demand notes, promissory notes, commercial paper, negotiable certificates of deposit, floating rate notes or any transferable debt securities with a maturity of generally one year or less) without restriction should the Investment Manager determine that market conditions so warrant.

It is anticipated that the Fund may gain exposure to the asset classes set out above by investing in exchange traded funds (ETFs) that are listed or traded on regulated markets. In no circumstances shall the Fund invest more than 40% of its Net Asset Value in any one unregulated collective investment scheme.

There are no prescribed geographical or sectoral restrictions applicable to the assets that may be acquired.

The Investment Manager will vary the proportion of the Fund invested in each of the asset classes set out above according to its perception of their relative growth potential with a view to optimising the Fund's returns. In this regard, the Investment Manager will take a balanced approach in seeking to achieve the investment objective of the Fund and, accordingly, shall ensure that the proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund invested in cash and/or fixed or floating rate securities is relatively balanced against the proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund invested in each of the foregoing asset classes. Accordingly, it is anticipated that 50% to 70% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund will be exposed to a multi-asset portfolio (which shall be made up of the foregoing asset classes) that is actively managed by the Investment Manager and shall target an absolute return strategy. The balance shall be invested in cash and fixed or floating rate securities.

Information in relation to certain of the Fund's investments is set out below.

ETFs

Generally an ETF is a fund that tracks an index, but which can be traded like a stock. ETFs typically bundle together the securities that are in an index. As ETFs are traded on stock exchanges, they can be bought and sold at any time during the day (unlike most mutual funds). Their price will fluctuate from moment to moment, just like any other stock's price.

ETFs are an efficient means of tracking an index as they have low operating and transaction costs associated with them.

Derivatives

The Fund may enter into derivative transactions including, but not limited to, forwards, futures, options and contracts for difference that are linked to the above mentioned securities. Such derivatives will be deployed where it is considered that their utilisation allows the Fund to obtain the required or desired economic exposure in a more efficient manner or at a lower transaction cost.

A contract for difference is a contract whereby one party agrees to pay to the counterparty the difference in price of a security between two points in time. A contract for difference may be used where this permits the Fund to achieve its investment objectives more efficiently and/or at a lower cost, for example, where a counterparty provides the Fund with exposure to the price movement of a security without the need for such security to be purchased and held in a custody account.

Margin/Collateral

In order to secure its obligations in respect of any derivatives transactions referred to above (whether exchange-traded or OTC), the Fund may be required to post margin/ collateral with a broker or OTC counterparty, whereby such margin/ collateral will be transferred outside the Depositary's custody network.

In circumstances where the Fund is required to post margin or collateral to any counterparty in the manner contemplated above and the margin is held by the counterparty on a proprietary basis, rather than as sub-Depositary to the Fund.

Investment Restrictions

The Company is categorised as a QIAIF and is governed by the AIF Rulebook applicable to this category of fund. The Central Bank has not set any limits or other restrictions on the investment objectives, the investment policies or on the degree of leverage which may be employed by the Company. However, under the Act, each sub-fund of the Company must manage its assets with the aim of spreading investment risk.

As indicated above, the Directors have not set any specific investment restrictions on the Fund, but will seek to obtain an appropriately diversified and balanced portfolio.

In any case, the Directors have determined that the Fund:

1. will not invest in real property, venture capital or take or seek to take legal or management control of the issuer of any of its underlying investments; and
2. will not acquire shares carrying voting rights which would enable it to exercise significant influence over the management of an issuing body.

Leverage and Borrowing Policy

It is not anticipated that the Fund will utilise any borrowing. The Fund will not utilise leverage directly at the level of its investments. However, the Fund may:

- (i) utilise derivatives, and in particular, forwards, futures, options, contracts for difference, stocklending, repurchase and reverse repurchase for efficient portfolio management purposes. Details of such derivatives are set out in the further detail in the section entitled "Investment Policy" above and in the Prospectus under the section entitled "Use of Derivative Instruments". It is not intended to leverage the portfolio of the Fund through such derivatives and so the value of the relevant position will not be greater than that which would be achieved through the direct investment in the corresponding underlying asset;

- (ii) utilise forward foreign exchange contracts to hedge and/or gain foreign currency exposure. Details of forward foreign exchange contracts are set out in the further detail in the section entitled “Investment Policy” above and in the Prospectus under the section entitled “Use of Derivative Instruments”. The use of such derivatives will result in leverage, provided always that such leverage will always be within the limits set out below; and
- (iii) borrow up to 5 % of its Net Asset Value for temporary purposes, which will be for the purpose of meeting frictional liquidity requirements and bridging timing differences between transactions.

The Investment Manager shall calculate global exposure pursuant to the commitment approach as permitted under the Central Bank’s AIF Rulebook and will comply with the limits described therein. Furthermore, it is intended that the maximum potential leverage of the Fund, shall not exceed (i) 100% of the Net Asset Value of any Fund, as calculated pursuant to the commitment method and (ii) 200% of the Net Asset Value of any Fund, as calculated pursuant to the gross method (i.e. the sum of the absolute values of all positions as set out in Article 7 of the Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No 231/2013).

Dividend Policy

It is currently not intended that the Fund will pay dividends or otherwise make distributions to Shareholders.

Risk Factors

Investors’ attention is drawn to the risk factors set out in the Prospectus and to the following additional risk factors.

Shareholders should note that the management fees and expenses incurred by the Fund will as far as possible be deducted from the income of the Fund. If there is insufficient income, the balance will be charged to the capital of the Fund. This may have the effect of lowering the capital value of the Shareholder’s investment.

Taxation

Any change in the Fund’s tax status or in taxation legislation could affect the value of the investments held by the Fund and could affect the return to investors. Potential investors and Shareholders should note that the statements on taxation, which are set out herein are based on advice which has been received by the Directors regarding the law and practice in force in the relevant jurisdiction as at the date of the Prospectus. As is the case with any investment, there can be no guarantee that the tax position or proposed tax position prevailing at the time an investment is made in the Fund will endure indefinitely. The attention of potential investors is drawn to the tax risk associated with investing in the Fund. See the section of the Prospectus headed “Taxation”.

Subscriptions

The Shares may only be acquired by life assurance undertakings authorised by the Central Bank to carry on life insurance business and the Cantor Fitzgerald Funds. Shares were available for subscription during the Initial Offer at a price of €100 (the “Initial Offer Price”).

Following the Closing Date, additional subscriptions for Shares shall be only permitted by investors who subscribed for such Shares during the Initial Offer, entities which are members of such initial investor's group and persons or entities that they advise or manage as well as the Cantor Fitzgerald Funds. Following the Closing Date, Shares will be available for subscription at the Net Asset Value on each Dealing Day.

Investors making an application for subscription should send the completed application form to be received by post, delivery or fax (with the original form and supporting documentation in relation to money laundering checks to follow as soon as is possible) by the Administrator no later than the Subscription Dealing Deadline. Subscription monies (in cleared funds) must be received by the Administrator, for the account of the Fund, by no later than 5.00pm (Irish time), on the second Business Day after the relevant Dealing Day. If payment in full has not been received by the relevant times stipulated above, the application may be refused and any Shares issued will be cancelled.

Applications not received or incorrectly completed applications received by the Administrator by the Subscription Dealing Deadline for the relevant Dealing Day shall be held over and applied on the next following Dealing Day or until such time as a properly completed application form is received by the Administrator on the date on which it is processed.

Redemptions

Shares will be redeemable at the option of the Shareholder on each Dealing Day except in the circumstances described herein and in the Prospectus. Following the Closing Date Shares may be redeemed at the Net Asset Value on each Dealing Day. Requests for redemption may be made by post, delivery or fax to the Administrator so as to be received by no later than the Redemption Dealing Deadline for the relevant Dealing Day on which the Shares are to be redeemed. Shares will be redeemed at the Net Asset Value as calculated on the relevant Dealing Day.

Redemption requests not received by the relevant Redemption Dealing Deadline shall be held over and applied on the next following Dealing Day. A request for a partial redemption of Shares will be refused, or the holding may be redeemed in its entirety, if, as a result of such partial redemption, the aggregate Net Asset Value of the Shares maintained by the Shareholder would be less than the Minimum Holding specified in the relevant section herein.

Settlement for redemptions will normally be made by telegraphic transfer to the bank account of the Shareholder specified in the application form (at the Shareholder's risk). Payment will normally be made within two Business Days, and in any event, within ten Business Days of the Dealing Day on which the redemption request has been processed. No payments to third parties will be effected. The applicant shall not without the written consent of the Company be entitled to withdraw a redemption request.

No redemption payment may be made from that holding until the original application form has been received from the Shareholder and all documentation required by the Administrator including any documents in connection with anti-money laundering procedures have been received.

As set out in the Prospectus, the Directors also reserve the right to the compulsory redemption of all Shares of any class held by a Shareholder if the aggregate Net Asset Value of the Shares of that class held by the Shareholder is less than the Minimum Holding specified herein. Prior to any compulsory redemption of such class of Shares, the Administrator will notify the Shareholders in writing providing such Shareholder with at least thirty days notice to purchase additional Shares of such class to meet this minimum requirement.

Conversion of Shares

A Shareholder shall have the right to convert all or any portion of his Shares in the Fund (the "Original Fund") into Shares of another fund (the "New Fund") on such terms and subject to such conditions as determined by the Directors and set out from time to time in the Prospectus.

Subject to the receipt by the Administrator of a notice requesting such conversion, which shall include such information as may be specified from time to time by the Directors or their agent (a "Conversion Notice") at least thirty calendar days before the Dealing Day on which the conversion is to be effected, the conversion of the Shares comprised in the Conversion Notice shall be effected on the next following Dealing Day. Conversions will only be accepted where cleared funds and completed application forms have been received in respect of the original subscriptions.

Conversion of the Shares comprised in the Conversion Notice shall be effected on the relevant Dealing Day by the redemption of the Shares of the Original Fund and the allotment and issue of Shares of the New Fund in proportion to (or as nearly as possible in proportion to) the holding of the Shares of the Original Fund. Where the number of Shares of the New Fund to be issued is not a whole number, the Directors may, at their absolute discretion, issue fractions of Shares of the New Fund up to two decimal places and any excess shall be returned to the Shareholder seeking to convert the Shares of the Original Fund

The applicant shall not without the written consent of the Company be entitled to withdraw a Conversion Notice except in any circumstances in which he would be entitled to withdraw a request for a redemption of Shares.

On any conversion the Company shall be entitled to deduct an amount in respect of any duties and charges arising out of such conversion.

Fees and Expenses

Investors' attention is drawn to the Fees and Expenses Section in the Prospectus.

Investment Management and Distribution Fees

In respect of investment management services and distribution services provided to the Fund, the Company shall pay to the Investment Manager and any relevant Distributor an aggregate fee not exceeding 0.50% of Net Asset Value of the Fund.

Depositary and Administration Fees

Pursuant to the Administration Agreement and the Depositary Agreement, the total fee that shall be paid to both the Administrator and the Depositary shall, when combined, not exceed the higher of 0.20% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund or €50,000 per annum. The Administrator and the Depositary will, as appropriate, reimburse the Company for any fees not earned if the Administration Agreement and/or the Depositary Agreement is terminated early.

Establishment Expenses

The fees and expenses incurred in the connection with the creation of the Fund, the preparation and publication of this Supplement and all legal costs and out-of-pocket expenses are not expected to exceed €60,000. Such expenses will be amortised on a straight-line basis over the first 60 months of operations of the Fund or such shorter period as the Directors may determine

Other Expenses

Investors' attention is drawn to the Other Expenses section in the Prospectus.

In addition, where soft commission arrangements are to be entered into by, or on behalf of, the Fund, appropriate arrangements will be made to ensure that the broker or counterparty to the arrangement has agreed to provide best execution to the Fund. The benefits provided under the arrangement will be those which assist in the provision of investment services to the Fund, and there will be adequate disclosure of such arrangements in the periodic reports relating to the Fund.
