The investor's attention is drawn to the fact that from period 4 onwards, Société Générale will only recall the product in the event of an exceptional market situation (in particular, a negative interest rate environment), whereby the coupon paid upon Early Redemption will be higher than the Final Coupon for the remainder of the term.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT COULD I GET IN RETURN?

Summary Risk Indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 1 out of 7, which is the lowest risk class.

This rates the potential losses from future performance at a very low level, and poor market conditions are very unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

You are entitled to receive back at least 100% of your capital (where "capital" means Nominal Value and not invested amount). Any amount over this, and any additional return, depends on future market performance and is uncertain. However, this protection against future market performance will not apply if you cash in before the Maturity Date.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

Inflation Risk : if the current economic situation characterized by high inflation persisted throughout the life time of the product, then the "real" return of the product, equal to its return minus the inflation rate, might be negative.

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted. The scenarios shown are illustrations based on results from the past and on certain assumptions. Market could develop very differently in the future.

Favourable	What you might get back after costs	EUR 10,340

(*) the return shown in the Minimum Scenario is the Minimum Reimbursement and does not include other type of return such as guaranteed coupon payments.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances.

The % figures in the table represent the potential positive (green) or negative (red) returns you might achieve at the end of the recommended holding period (last column) or by selling the product before (previous column) and for a stressed, unfavourable, moderate and favourable scenario (per line). These scenarios were calculated using simulations based on the underlying's past performance.

WHAT ARE THE COSTS?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Costs over Time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

The duration of this product is uncertain as it may terminate at different times depending on how the market evolves. The amounts shown here consider two different scenarios (early call and maturity). In case you decide to exit before the product ends, exit costs may apply in addition to the amounts shown here.

We have assumed:

- EUR 10,000 is invested

- a performance of the product that is consistent with each holding period shown.

	If the product is called at the first possible date 22/12/2025	If the product reaches maturity
Total costs	EUR 343	EUR 293

(*) This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at maturity your average return per year is projected to be 4.0% before costs and 3.4% after costs.

We may share part of the costs with the person selling you the product to cover the services they provide to you. They will inform you of the amount.
